

Employees of CCS in Zambia Celebrating Christmas and New Year Together

In the morning of December 21, 2013, local time, China-Zambian annual Christmas party of the Chambishi Copper Smelter Limited (CCS) in Zambia was held in the auditorium. People with a happy smile gradually came to the auditorium where songs and laughter were filled with.

In the first operation year - 2009, CCS held China-Zambian Christmas party here for the first time. Since then, every Saturday before Christmas, CCS will hold the Christmas party and this is already the fifth one.

People invited included part of the Chinese staff, Zambian senior employees, 30 annual outstanding employees, union leaders and employee representatives. This year, Chambishi municipal officials were also invited.

At the party, Xinguo Yang, Executive Director, Vice President and General Manager of CCS, delivered a New Year speech and cut the giant cake with MUTONGA, senior employee in the engineering department of Zambia, and gave his sincere thanks to all employees for their hard-working/contribution to the company in 2013 and extended New Year wishes. On behalf of all workers, union president congratulated all of the workers for the CCS's achievements over the past year and expressed his thanks for what the company had done for the employees.

During the party, employees of CCS performed a variety of dances and other cultural programs, among which Chinese song "Snow of Saibei" sung by Zambian staff left a deep impression to everyone. Xinguo Yang, Executive Director, Vice President and General Manager of CCS, awarded the outstanding performance and team in the 2013 Zambia National First Aid Competition and the company's 2013 annual Football League and tug of war competition with trophies and prizes.

Christmas Party not only helps pull relationship between employees and management closer, but also promotes the Sino-Zambian friendship and understanding, which lays a good foundation for CCS to achieve greater success in the New Year.
