On March 12, 2013, new Zambian Ambassador to China, Yiwa Fanda Fanda paid a visit to China Nonferrous Metal Mining (Group) Co., Ltd. (CNMC), the holding group of CNMCL. CNMCL chairman of board Luo Tao and CEO Tao Xinghu had a cordial and friendly meeting with the ambassador.

Ambassador Fanda Fanda and her party first visited the exhibition hall and listened to the introduction to CNMCL development history and business developments inside and outside China given by CEO Tao Xinghu. Ambassador Fanda Fanda congratulated CNMC and CNMCL on their great achievements. She thanked them for their huge contribution to Zambia's economic development and offering of jobs to Zambian people. She stood for a while in front of the photos of Zambia's founding president Kaunda and passionately recalled Mr. Kaunda's great contribution to the establishment and deepening of China-Zambia friendship and cooperation.

At the VIP hall, Chairman Luo Tao and Ambassador Fanda Fanda had a friendly talk. Chairman Luo Tao congratulated Ambassador on her taking up the post as the ambassador. He introduced to her CNMCL's investment in Zambia and thanked Zambian Embassy in China for its great help and support to CNMCL. He hopes that following the leadership of Ambassador Fanda Fanda, Zambian Embassy in China can continue promoting China-Zambia friendship. On behalf of Zambian Government, Ambassador Fanda Fanda thanked CNMC and CNMCL for their contribution to the economic development and social progress of Zambia. She said that current Zambian Government will focus on increasing Zambian people's employment and thus improving their standard of living. The huge investment in Zambia by CNMC and CNMCL has helped Zambian Government fulfill its promise to its people. She recalled the selfless help China has given to Zambia for its pursuit of independence and its construction. She said that Zambia and its people won't forget the great help from China. Zambian Government will ensure its policies' stability and continuity, safeguard the safety of foreign investment, and create a good investment environment for foreign investors such as CNMCL. Zambian Embassy in China will also, as always, continue supporting all the work of CNMCL.

Zambian Counsellor to China Joe Gelaiziya, military attaché Morgen Sterwala, and some other relevant embassy personnel were present during the activities.
