

China Nonferrous Mining Corporation Limited winning 2013 IFAPC Outstanding Listed Company Award

On November 28, 2013, the winners of the IFAPC Outstanding Listed Company Award were made public in Hong Kong. China Nonferrous Mining Corporation Limited (CNMCL) won 2013 IFAPC Outstanding Listed Company Award. In total, 20 enterprises listed at HKEx won the award of this year.

Cosponsored by Hong Kong Stock Analyst Association, Metro Finance Channel, and Metro Finance Digital Channel, the award aims to make the industry more transparent and promote its services and development. The winning listed companies are chosen based on the performance of their products or services during the past year (from July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013). The award is presented to them to mark their outstanding performance or great potentials. CNMCL wins the award in the first year after being listed in Hong Kong. This not only represents the full acknowledgement of its good performance by the industry in Hong Kong, but more importantly, bodes well for its future development.

Joint Company Secretary Mr. Hu Aibin attended the award-giving ceremony and received an interview by Enterprise Blueprint, a business wisdom program of Metro Finance Digital Channel.

