

President Xinghu Tao Visiting the Chinese Ambassador in Congo (DRC) --- Yingwu Wang

At 9:00 on May 23, 2013, Xinghu Tao, the Vice Chairman of the Board and CEO, visited Chinese embassy in Congo-Kinshasa to meet Yingwu Wang, the Chinese ambassador in Congo-Kinshasa.

CEO Xinghu Tao introduced the development of the company and its investment situation in Zambia and Congo-Kinshasa. President Xinghu Tao said that up-held the principle of win-win cooperation, the investment in Zambia had brought in great achievements. He believed that with the help of Ambassador Yingwu Wang, cooperation with companies in Congo-Kinshasa would be deepen in broader areas to make new and great contribution on improving the living standards of local people and promoting local regional economic development.

Ambassador Yingwu Wang hoped that CNMC could make full use of the outstanding advantages in the field of non-ferrous metals and play an active part in developing the Congo project. He stressed that the Chinese Embassy in Congo-Kinshasa would strongly support the investment development of CNMC in Congo-Kinshasa to facilitate the friendship between China and Congo-Kinshasa.

Kaishou Xie, Executive Director and General Manager of Chambishi Copper Smelter Limited (CCS), and Shao Xin Wu, Executive Vice President of Chinese Chamber of Commerce in Katanga Province and Vice Chairman of the CNMC Huaxin Hydrometallurgy co., LTD, attended the meeting.

CEO Xinghu Tao visiting ambassador Yingwu Wang in the Chinese embassy in Congo-Kinshasa