

CNMC Luanshya Holding a Meeting to Review Its 2013 Production Plan

On December 29, CNMC Luanshya Copper Mines Plc held a meeting to review its 2013 production plan. The company's managerial staff, including department chiefs and higher-ranking personnel, attended the meeting. The meeting was presided over by Luo Xingeng, executive director and DCEO of CNMCL and president of CNMC Luanshya Copper Mines Plc.

By discussing and studying the 2013 production plan, the attendees further clearly recognized the difficulties and problems with the company's production and operation in 2013. They also reached a common understanding, clearly realized the great significance in fulfilling the production plan, and worked out the detailed measures for attaining such goal. The meeting will impel all employees of CNMC Luanshya to actively and enthusiastically throw themselves into all production and operation activities in 2013.

To soundly arrange the production and operation activities in 2013, the meeting put forward the following measures. First, all employees should fully understand the difficulties and challenges in 2013, cope with them in a correct and scientific way, and work effectively on every single day since the very beginning of the year. Secondly, the company should firmly implement the economic responsibility system examination, fully mobilize the initiative and creativity of its Chinese and Zambian employees, increase output and cut down cost, and realize maximum economic benefit. Thirdly, the company should enhance leadership, optimize production organization structure, and upgrade production efficiency. Fourthly, the company should strengthen technical management of production equipment, carry out effective scientific innovation and technical research, and try hard to turn science and technology into productivity. Fifthly, the company should quicken new project development, realize resources supplement to Baluba Mine as soon as possible, and fulfill sustainable production.