At 4 PM on January 24, 2013, a grueling basketball match was being held in the Olympic Basketball Gymnasium of Lusaka, capital of Zambia. The basketball team of CNMC enterprises in Zambia, known as CNMC

Team, was defending its championship.

The basketball match is sponsored by Chinese Embassy in Zambia and Chinese Chamber of Commerce in Zambia. The first session, entitled “CNMC Cup,” was hosted by CNMC in early 2012. The current second session, entitled “ZTE Cup,” is hosted by ZTE. Some eight teams of Chinese-invested enterprises take part in the current session. CNMC Team again wins the championship after winning a series of matches. Its unremitting spirit fully demonstrates the tenacious mindset shared by CNMC enterprises in Zambia. Six employees of CNMCL enterprises in Zambia played the match as team members.
